has successfully completed an ascent to the world's tallest building

BURJ KHALIFA

Rising gracefully from the desert, Burj Khalifa honours the city with its extraordinary union of art, engineering and meticulous craftsmanship.

At 828 metres (2,716.5 ft), the 200 plus storey Burj Khalifa is described as both a 'Vertical City' and 'A Living Wonder,'.

The tower was inaugurated on January 4, 2010 and currently holds seven Guinness World Records including the world's highest observation deck.
